Charles McCaskill new Blair principal

The Madison Board of Education Thursday night selected Charles McCaskill to replace Richard Davis as principal of Blair School. Spillers, principal of the school about 15 years, requested a different assignment, saying he felt he had remained in that position too long and wished to confront new challenges in another position.

He accepted the post of a remedial reading teacher at the intermediate level in the Madison district.

McCaskill last year was the team leader for the Teacher Corps program in the Madison district. He formerly served in the district as coordinator of the music program.

In other personnel assignments, Sharon Manley of East St. Louis was selected to teach girls' physical education at Madison High School; Fran Loretta Cook of Granite City was selected as a social worker for the district; Raelyn Boston was chosen to teach business education at Madison High School and Loretta Cook of Granite City was hired to teach high school special education classes.

At Harris School, Irene Macko was promoted to head cook and Connie George was hired as a cook.

Two passengers were injured when the car of Carlos M. James, 1303 Granite Ave., collided head-on at the curve on Route 3 at the humane shelter, a half-mile south of the A.O. Smith Corp. plant at 2:30 p.m. Thursday.

James and taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital were Tanya Mitchell, 2, of 1303 Granite Ave., and her mother, Mrs. Donna Mitchell, 27.

James' car struck the side of her head and the mother suffered injuries to her right knee and chest. X-rays were taken and both were released.

Parents of new students are urged to meet the immunization and physical examination requirements prior to registration. Registration may not be completed until either all medical requirements have been met or written evidence of a doctor's appointment is presented by a parent.

School registrations scheduled

Registration for new students will be held in Granite City elementary schools, Monday, Aug. 23, from 9 a.m. to 12 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Junior High School students will be registered from 8 a.m. to 3 p.m. beginning Wednesday, and continuing through Aug. 23 in the school they will attend. Earliest possible registration will be held by school officials to permit class scheduling.

High school registration continues at both North and South High Schools through Monday, Aug. 16. Registration is being held Monday through Friday between the hours of 8 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Those who have questions about where to register their children may call the School Board office at 451-7560.

Illinois law states that no child may enter school for the first time without the immunizations for whooping cough, diphtheria, tetanus, polio and measles. For the ill, school authorities said, the only exceptions are for religious or medical reasons.

Physical examinations are required also of all students entering the schools and attending school or returning to the state of Illinois for the first time.

Forms for physical examinations may be picked up at the Board of Education office, 2000 Alton Avenue, Adams Street, Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Parents of new students are urged to meet the immunization and physical examination requirements prior to registration. Registration may not be completed until either all medical requirements have been met or written evidence of a doctor's appointment is presented by a parent.

B. J. Davis, superintendent of schools, urged that all students entering the local district for the first time be registered before the first day of school.

"It is a mutual interest of the parent, the child, and the school that every child be placed as quickly as possible in a program which will best meet his or her particular educational needs."

Davis also urged that anyone knowing of new families in their neighborhood to encourage them to register their children on the dates indicated above. Only students new to this district or who have not previously been in school need to register. Kindergarten children registered last spring need not register again.

Registration of new students at St. Joseph School will be available by calling Sister Bernadette, school principal, at 877-8203, for an appointment.

and at Sacred Heart School for grades 1-8 on Aug. 18 and 19 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. After 4 p.m., parents may call 876-0716 for an appointment.

For new students who have moved into the area and will attend St. Mary's St. Mark's School, registration will be available by calling Sister Bernadette, school principal, at 877-8203, for an appointment.

'I can do it myself'—it's a good attitude for kindergarten students

Advice for parents of prospective kindergarten pupils assembled by DeKalb

Deaf parents of Mike (age 5):

As the summer days slip into fall, I imagine Mike is eying that date when he starts to school for the first time in his life.

It is hard to say who is more excited—Mike, or his parents, or his teacher.

Although we have seen hundreds of other kindergarten faces through the years, I still catch the wonder and newness of that first day.

How their eyes sparkle! How eager they are to touch, to smell, to talk, to learn everything that is taught.

However, many of the questions and problems that arise are often old ones. So I've jotted down a few suggestions that might help "new" parents like us in preparing the child's way during those first days in kindergarten.

Can I do it myself? Help Mike to become independent. Can he tie his shoes? Zip his jacket? Feed himself? Go to the bathroom alone? Wash his hands thoroughly?

Before school opens, practice walking to and from school or the bus stop with him. Doing so will add to his security and B. J. Davis, superintendent of kindergarten students.

Who am I? Teach Mike his full name, address and phone number. If a parent's name is different from the bus sitter's name, teach him the bus sitter's name and phone number? If not, send it with him to school.

Teach him his bus number. Kindergarten children are asked to wear tags each day with their name, address and bus number.

What belongs to me? — How lovely the label! On jackets, sweatshirts, backpacks, tennis shoes, paint shirts, gym shorts, shirts, lunch buckets and sack lunches. When sending money to school; tick it up an envelope and label what it is for, how much, and for whom.

When do I nap? — Several days in advance, adjust Mike's meal times and nap time to the half-day that he will be attending school.

When do I need to be? — You and Mike should decide upon a place in the house where messages or class work from school can be left.

Whether you choose the regular door, a special door or hang them on a lamp shade, always use the same place.

Notes are notorious about going astray, especially if several issues come home. Child returns from school.

A child who goes to a babysitter may need to make special arrangements for his communications from school.

What about clothes? — Although codes are vanishing, we know that some outfits are more suitable than others to child play.

In choosing school clothing, ask yourself:

1) Can the child zip, button, tie and hook with a minimum of help?

2) Can the child get dressed

3) Can the child get dressed

Miss Carla Linhart and Jerry Petrillo are wed

Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Carla Linhart and Jerry Petrillo, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick J. Petrillo, 220 Monroe Ave., Alton.

Bouquets of roses, daisies and pom poms in pastel shades decorated the altar for the 2 p.m. double ring ceremony performed by Father James Hiltner.

Duane Fant played the guitar and sang "The Wedding Song," "If," "Colour My World," "We've Only Just Begun," and "I've Loved You." He was accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Crawshaw at the organ.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose a floor length bouffant gown on white Chantilly fashioned with a high waistline, a belted bodice and long fitted sleeve edges with ruffled cuffs.

Sequin marked the front of the Empire waistline to complement the straight front of the gown. The bride chose a side and back skirt which fell into a chapel train.

She wore a bouffant fingertip veil of white illusion edged in matching lace and secured by a just-right hat of lace etched with sequins.

Her bouquet was a cascade of stephanotis, pink and white roses and baby's breath.

Guests included Mrs. and Mr. Tom Langemann, the bride's parents. They are now residing in Granville, Ill.

John Krekovich, a graduate of Granite City High School and this year from Southern Illinois University at Carbondale, He is employed at Petrillo's Produce.

The groom was graduated in 1971 from South High School and

Zubal-Lattimore nuptials at St. Margaret Mary

Miss Karen Elizabeth Lattimore, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Lattimore Jr., 3224 Edgewood Ave., and Timothy John Zubal, a son of Mr. and Mrs. John Zubal, 211 S. Illinois, Mount Olive, Ill., exchanged wedding vows on June 26 at St. Margaret Mary Church.

Minister Edward Gresch performed the double ring ceremony at 7:30 p.m. before an altar decorated with baskets of white Sweetheart roses.

The newly married couple are residing in Edgewoodville.

A graduate of Granite City High School, she is a senior at Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, majoring in business administration.

The groom is a Mount Olive High School graduate and is employed as a bricklayer for the Gib Zubal Bricklaying Co.

Organist Karen Fisher accompanied Miss Sandy Baker as she sang several wedding songs.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a long white organza gown designed with a molded bodice, long tapered sleeves and a full skirt encircled with a deep ruffled flounce accented with Venise lace.

The sheer veil of illusion was secured by a Juliet hat of organza and lace. She carried a bouquet of yellow Sweetheart roses, apricot carnations and baby's breath.

Miss Karen Lattimore, a sister of the bride and bridesmaids, Miss Jorja Aerne, Miss Carol Roberts and Miss Pat Zubal, the groom's sister, chose identical gowns fashioned of floral daffron in yellow and blue.

The strapless full length dresses were created with Empire waistlines and full circular skirts and worn with matching canary picture hats. Each girl held a bouquet similar to the bridal bouquet.

The groom chose his brother, Bill Zubal as best man. Bruce Lattimore, a twin brother of the bride, Ed Barwick and Stan Zebrowski were ushers. The groom, Ewald Hoffman and Terry Hannig completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

The reception was held at the Croatian Home after the service and the rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at Charlie's Restaurant.

Elaine and Ann Wolshock, cousins of the bride, presided over the garter and Pat Correll assisted at the reception. Chris Weis and Michael Zickovich were mass servers.

Mehelic-Hagans wedding in Manhattan, Kansas

An out of town wedding of interest to the Daily Boomerang was that of Mrs. Debbie Hagans, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Hagans, Utica, Kan., and Philip Mehelic, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Mehelic, Madison, on July 24 at St. Isadore's Catholic Church in Manhattan, Kan.

Miss Marjorie Neibling presided at the organ for soloist Mrs. Greg Martin as she sang wedding selections.

Upright green gladiolus and pansies decorated the altar for the double ring service performed by Father Norbert Dabala.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a floor length Empire waistline bodice with a knotted belt accented with Venise lace flower appliques which cinched the shoulders of the high-necked sleeveless bodice and also framed a V-yoke of sheer net.

Madeline, the bride, defined the high rise waistline and edged the hemline of the A-line skirt and chapel train.

A small bandage of lace held her veil of sheer illusion and she carried a bouquet of green gladiolus intermingled with flame gladiolus buds and greenery.

The groom of honor, Mrs. Larry Lewinson and bridegroom, Mr. Stan King were attired in matching A-line dresses in dusty green knit, featuring sleeveless bodices, Empire waistlines and skirts.

Both held crescent bouquets of green gladiolus and miniature flame straw blossoms.

Minneapolis Church scene of Boone-Arent nuptials

An out of town wedding of interest here was that of Miss Mary L. Arent, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Arent, Wausau, Wis., and Mark J. Boone, a son of Mrs. Harvey E. Boone, 1625 Lindell Blvd., and late Harvey Boone, on June 12 at the Crystal Assembly of God Church, Minneapolis, Minn.

Organist Mrs. Gordon Zilman accompanied soloists Danny Thomas and Beverly Hunt as the sang several nuptial selections.

A double ring ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. John Everett.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the former Miss Arent, wore a long white organza gown designed with long sleeves and accented with a decorative lace trim.

The groom, a Mount Olive High School graduate and is employed as a bricklayer for the Gib Zubal Bricklaying Co.

Matching lace edged the fingertip veil and she carried a cascade of roses intermingled with stephanotis, baby's breath and trailing violets.

Matron of honor Mrs. Helen Pattenhill, a sister of the bride, and bridesmaids Miss Julie Arent, Miss Lois Boone, sisters of the bride and groom and Miss Debbie Parker chose peach gowns trimmed with ivory lace.

Each attendant wore a ivory picture hat and carried baskets of daisies, carnations and roses.

Chrissie Boone, a niece of the groom, served as flower girl. She is the daughter of Mrs. Shirley Boone, a former teacher similar to the adult attendants and she held a miniature basket of summer blossoms.

David Boone, the groom's brother, was best man. Ed Pattenhill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter and Kristin Blockberger, Wayne Pattenhill, the bride's brother-in-law, and Glen Ryswijk completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

A reception was held in the church fellowship hall immediately following the ceremony. The rehearsal dinner was held at the Galena Air Force Station, Alaska.

Sergeant Ballentine, a ground crewman, and his wife, a graduate of Granite City High School, the former Miss Arent, graduated this year from North Central Bible College, Minneapolis.

The groom is a 1973 graduate of Granite City High School and is presently a senior student at NCBC.

OK funds for mine subsidence control

Rep. Melvin Price (Dem., 23rd Ill.) announced Friday that $1 million has been appropriated to start a coal mine subsidence control project in Belleville and Maryville.

The $1 million appropriation for the Department of the Interior, newly signed into law, work on the subsidence control project is expected to start after Oct. 1, when the new federal fiscal year begins.

The current year is 15 months, July 1975 to September 1976, to permit the transition to the new fiscal period.

The appropriation is the first step toward obtaining an estimated $3,450,000 to drill and backfill many of the old coal mine shafts that honeycomb much of the area in the 23rd Congressional District.

The area affected by the $1 million appropriation covers 101 acres and has a value of $8 million.

Price succeeded in obtaining the money for the area after hearing of mine subsidence damage to homes in three areas: Canterbury Manor area in Swansea, the St. Henry Seminary and Notre Dame Academy section in Belleville and the Bauer Addition in Maryville.

The congressman toured areas where mine subsidence damage occurs as much around mine shafts shifts, causing cracks in walls and foundations of buildings.

A team of engineers from the Bureau of Mines also made a tour at Rep. Price's request, consulting local officials and homeowners and issuing a report outlining the problem areas.

"I am especially pleased that we were able to get money for subsidence control passed so quickly," Price said. "I plan to continue watching this problem carefully."

There are indications that the Belleville-Maryville project could be among the first of a series of mine subsidence control projects throughout the nation, he added.

Since the structure of individual mines determines the methods with which they can be filled, the first $300,000 of the appropriation will be used for preliminary drilling, determination of the areas most affected and designation of the methods to stop subsidence.

Efforts to stop such damage in at least one locality were successful through flushing sand into the mine shafts.

Such a project was carried out several years ago in Rock Springs, Wyo., when Congress appropriated $3 million over a four-year period to stop damage.

The Bureau of Mines currently is making preparations for drawing up technical specifications for the project, which will be done by private contractors.

Starting in the new fiscal year begins, the project will be advertised nationwide for bids, with the Bureau of Mines responsible for supervising and inspecting the work.

TAKE CASH FROM PURSE

About $100 in bills and several dollars in loose change were taken from a woman at Elmwood, 2018 Ohio Ave., about 3:40 p.m. Thursday while the victim was watching television in another room. She reported someone had broken through the unlocked screen door, took the purse from her bedroom and removed the money from it. The purse then was thrown through an outside door into the cellar.

Roseman honored by Optimists

Arthur Roseman of the Optimist Club of Granite City has been recognized for service to his community and his club with the "Heritage '76" award. He is one of a select group of Optimists from throughout North America to receive the award from Patrick L. Grady, president of Optimist International. The presentations were made at the 58th annual convention of Optimist service organizations at annual convention in Washington, D.C.

Each recipient was selected for the award by the members of his own club. Purpose of the award, Grady said, is to recognize individual Optimists who have "contributed to the heritage of service and who exemplify the purposes of Optimist International."

"It is my firm belief that our organization has grown and developed as a result of unselfish efforts of individual Optimists working to improve their communities."

The award is in the form of a quill pen desk set, inscribed with the recipient's name and bearing the theme of Grady's year in office, "United we serve."

Cancel Plan Commission meet

The Granite City Board of Appeals will meet at 1:15 p.m. Wednesday, but Thursday's meeting of the Granite City Plan Commission has been cancelled to accommodate vacation schedules of the commission members.

At Wednesday's Board of Appeals meeting, zoning requests are to be considered, including one from Dr. Hector Zavlos who wishes to construct an addition 15 feet deep to within five feet of a real property line at his medical unit at 2050 Iowa St. Present zoning requires a 20-foot rear yard.

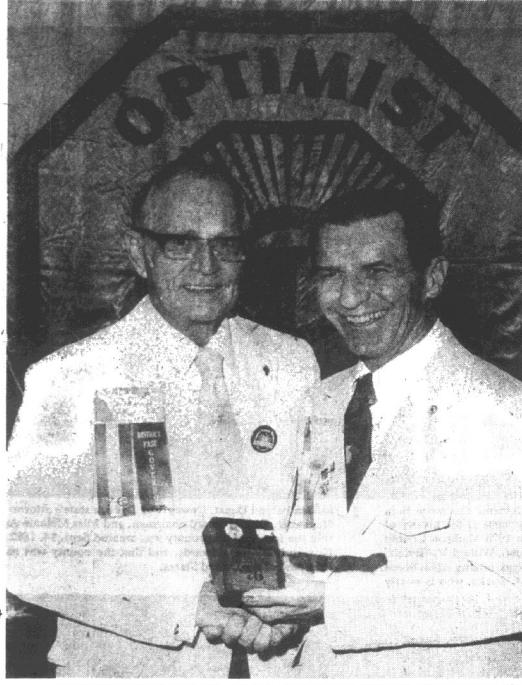

Pat Cline is requesting authorization to place a swimming pool three feet from the side property line at 3128 Jill Ave. in an R-2 single family residential district.

Richard James, 144 Briarwood, is seeking permission to construct an attached garage two feet from his side property line in an R-2 district, and George Hurcocy, 3015 Warren, wishes to construct a carport 5.5 feet from the front property line.

The next regular meeting of the city's Plan Commission will be held Sept. 9 and this month's business will be considered at that time.

AMPLIFIER STOLEN

Tom Williams, 2118 Johnson Road, discovered Thursday that his auto had been entered and a $175 amplifier for a citizens' broadcast had been taken. The glove compartment also was ransacked. A coat hanger was believed used to unlock the driver's door.

ARTHUR ROSEMAN, left, of the Granite City Optimist Club receives the "Heritage '76" award from Patrick L. Grady, president of Optimist International. The award, in recognition of service to club and community, was presented as a highlight of the international service organization's 58th annual convention at the Washington Hilton Hotel.

Electrician qualifications discussed at city meeting

A challenge to the qualifications of a member of the Granite City Electrical Board was rejected last week by Mayor Paul Schuler, who said that he considered the member fully qualified for the post and that the appointment "stands as it is."

The issue developed during a regular meeting of the City Council when John Petish, a Granite City electrician, was given permission to address the council. Petish is a former member of the Electrical Board.

In a prepared letter which Petish read to the aldermen, he charged that Abel Valencia, appointed as an electrician representative on the board, might lack qualifications of a "journeyman" electrician, which Petish said are required by state law. He did not question that Valencia is an electrician.

Petish urged that the members of Valencia and other board members be asked by the City Council for consideration before such appointments are made.

Venice Township hearing Tuesday

A public hearing to a proposal to add $24,000 to the town budget of Venice Township will be held at 4 p.m. tomorrow in the township office, Fifth Street and Madison Avenue, Madison.

The extra $24,000 is necessary to repay a loan of that amount borrowed last year from the federal government for account.

The addition will increase to $121,691 the total of the 1976-77 township budget for town purposes.

"We have a fully qualified (electrical) board and it is going to take that way," the mayor replied.

Petish repeated his request that qualifications be outlined "so we can know if he is being qualified to do the job," Mayor Schuler said.

"I want to know his qualifications and I want you to prove that he is a journeyman electrician," Petish said, adding that "you should have him lay his qualifications on the table and I'll lay out my qualifications."

"There's no need of you laying out your qualifications because you're not in line for the job, anyway," the mayor said. He ended the discussion at that point, calling for the next regular council meeting.

Valencia has been serving on the board and was reappointed this summer for the 1976-77 year. The board is responsible for standards in the city electrical code.

Ticket returns for Camelot by Sept. 1

Members of the Granite City Optimist Club are being asked to return their money for Camelot Auction tickets by Wednesday, Sept. 1.

The announcement was made at the Thursday noon meeting of the Granite City Optimist Club in the YMCA, by Dave Brooks, president.

The joint Rotary-Optimist Auction will be held at the Sunset Hills Country Club on Saturday, Oct. 2, beginning with dinner at 5:30 p.m. Proceeds of the auction will be used to support local civic projects of the two service clubs.

Members recognized Thursday for their service to club and community, was presented as a highlight of the international service organization's 58th annual convention at the Washington Hilton Hotel.

House looted

Granite City police are investigating recent looting to a vacant house at 2741 Dale Ave., which was discovered last week and has been watched since.

A rear window was forced open and numerous items have been taken including five rooms of furniture, drapes, carpeting, the light fixture and electrical outlets. Suspended ceiling tiles also were removed from the ceiling and stacked by the rear door.

The house is owned by Richard Buenger, 2235 Pontoon Road.

Rule changes stress safer school football

Significant changes in the 1976 National Alliance Football rules, which games are played by member schools in the Illinois High School Association (IHSA) are administered, may make the coming season one of the most enjoyable for fans and yet make the game safer physically for the competitors.

A series of 23 IHSA-sponsored football rules interpretation meetings for officials registered with the association, coaches, administrators and school personnel will be held throughout the state and surrounding areas from Aug. 23 through Sept. 14 to provide uniform interpretations in revisions of the 1976 rules.

Serving as football rules interpreters this fall will be IHSA Association Executive Secretary L. L. Astroth of Springfield, Ned Green of Wheeling, Charles Hillman of Hinckley, Ted Search of Chester and Robert L. Wright of Champaign.

Only officials who attend the 1976 rule changes will be eligible to be selected to work the 1976 football play-off series, which gets under way Wednesday, Nov. 10.

Astroth will conduct a rules meeting at 7:30 p.m. Aug. 26 at Room 1100, Belleville East High School.

Any player guilty of butting, blocking or face-tackling will cause his team to receive a 15-yard penalty for a personal foul. The rule is intended to eliminate a coaching technique that has long been termed dangerous and not in the interest of football as it is played by young people of high school age.

But-blocking is defined in the rule book as "a technique involving a blow with a face mask, frontal area or top of the head delivered by an player who deliberately commits a foul may put his team in the hole on its next offensive series. The 15-yard penalty will be assessed after the kickoff, allowing the scoring team to kickoff from the opponent's 45-yard line instead of its own 40."

Fans will be able to detect high school players who line up on offense in the backfield positions or at the ends of the line, will be eligible to receive passes. A player not wearing these proper numbers will be ineligible to receive passes.

The rules also recommend that the following system be used in numbering offensive players: Ends 80-99; Tackles 70-79; Guards 60-69; Centers 50-59; Backs 1-49.

Only players wearing numbers 1-49 and 80-99 and who line up on offense in the backfield positions or at the ends of the line, will be eligible to receive passes. A player not wearing these proper numbers will be ineligible to receive passes.

The rules also recommend that the following system be used in numbering offensive players: Ends 80-99; Tackles 70-79; Guards 60-69; Centers 50-59; Backs 1-49.

Defensive players may wear any number, but should the player also play on offense, the number rule will apply.

Other changes will prohibit the use of television, videotape, etc., for monitoring replay for any coaching purposes during the game, including intermission, but will not prohibit the filming, videotaping, etc., of the game for use after the conclusion of the contest.

Permit the use of phones, radios or other electronic communication devices during authorized player-coach conferences.

Extend the team box to the 30-yard-lines on each side of the field and recommend the team box on the sidelines to be solid white or marked in diagonal lines.

Allow the referee to penalize either team for committing any act which in the opinion of the referee may make a trustee of the game.

In addition of the bylaws, or other persons found to be in gross violation of the ethics of competition or principles of good sportsmanship, may be barred by the IHSA from interscholastic athletic contests.

The sportsmanship bylaws stipulate, "It is the clear obligation of students, school staff, board of education and other official representatives of member schools in all interscholastic relationships to practice and promote the highest principles of sportsmanship and the ethics of competition and to the obligation of the member school to maintain proper crowd control at all interscholastic activities."

"The IHSA board of directors shall have full authority to ban from any member school, any of whose official representatives or spectators may be adjudged upon competent evidence to have violated these obligations."

MADISON COUNTY HISTORY IS READ. Ken Daust informs the more than 17,000 fans in attendance at St. Louis' Busch Stadium Thursday night of the history of Madison County before introducing county officials during the 1976 Madison County Night. Behind Daust (from left) are State Representative Joe Lucco, Willard V. "Butch" Portell, clerk of the Madison County Circuit Court, Harold E. Briggs, county educational superintendent, Sheriff John Maeras, County Coroner Dallas M. Burke, who is nearly hidden behind Daust, Dewey Van Dyke, a state's attorney's office representative, Nelson Hagnauer, County Board chairman, and Miss Melanie Asadorian of Granite City. Daust told the fans that this county was created Sept. 14, 1812, by proclamation of Territorial Governor Ninian Edwards, and that the county was named for James Madison, then President of the United States.

AT THE OLD BALL GAME. A strike call is issued by State Rep. Joe Lucco, serving as umpire, on Madison County Sheriff John Maeras as Circuit Clerk Willard "Butch" Portell serves as catcher on Madison County Night observed Thursday at Busch Stadium. Maeras connected with the ball on the next pitch from Nelson Hagnauer, chairman of the County Board. The baseball Cardinals perhaps could have utilized Maeras; the collected only seven hits in losing to the Philadelphia Phillies, 5-2. Watching in the background (from left) are Ken Daust, an official of the Cardinals, Melanie Asadorian, partially visible behind Portell, County Coroner Dallas M. Burke, Supt. Harold E. Briggs of the Madison County educational service region, and Dewey Van Dyke of the state's attorney's office.

State meet to begin

Four Quad-City softball teams are ready to compete in this week's open Class A state double-elimination tournament, which begins Wednesday at the Decatur and Moweaqua diamonds.

They are Granite City Athletic Club, Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1300, Croatian Home and Razor's Edge Barber Shop.

The local squads, members of Granite City Park District leagues, advanced into the state tournament from the district meet held in June and won by the Athlete Club Post 1300 runner-up honors. Croatian Home was third and Razor's Edge fourth.

Through the fifth annual state tournament Wednesday, local entries will not see action until late this week.

Athlete Club plays Kankakee at 9 p.m. Friday in Decatur with the other three teams play Saturday.

Contests Saturday include Post 1300 vs. Moline One at 11 a.m. in Decatur; Croatian Home vs. Genesee Two at noon in Moline and Razor's Edge Barber Shop.

Opening round games Wednesday include Danville Two vs. Decatur Three, Springfield Two vs. Alton Two, Peoria One and Peoria Four vs. Charleston One.

On Thursday, games on tap are Alton One vs. Rantoul Three, Jerseyville One vs. Peoria Two, Bloomington One vs. Jacksonville Three, Charleston Two vs. Decatur Two, Rantoul Two vs. Alton Three, Jacksonville One vs. Clinton, Decatur Four vs. Jerseyville Two and Peoria Two vs. Peoria One.

Other than the Athletic Club's game Friday, playing that day will be Macomb Three vs. Dupo One, Moweaqua Two vs. Peoria Two, Bloomington One vs. Jacksonville One, Jacksonville Five vs. Macomb Two, Decatur One vs. Bloomington Two, Rantoul

Seniors

faced difficult problems of survival.

Although a state Board of Charities had been appointed in 1869, the state's growing number of hospitals and prisons maintained separate administrators, purchasing policies and procedures.

No real effort was made to coordinate statewide activity, keep useful records, or make a programmatic commitment to the aged.

The Progressive Period saw the combining of a jumble of 19th-century foundations and agencies into the state Department of Public Welfare as part of a general governmental reorganization, but the aged received little special attention.

Grey Power first appeared in the 1930s, which broke hundreds of thousands of older citizens on the economic wheel.

New machines threw them out of factories first, new roads and urban sprawl, and family moves to a city or out of one left them isolated.

It was in these years that Dr. Francis E. Townsend issued a springing call which gained a significant response from Illinois' aged.

He advocated that everyone older than 60 received a monthly allowance of $200 with the only provision that it all be spent in 30 days.

The federal government responded quickly to real political pressure with the passage of the Social Security Act.

When funds from the new law first became available in Illinois in July 1936, the state's needy elderly were found to be either carried as part of county relief or among the 55,000 inmates in the 27 institutions run by the Department of Public Welfare.

The first two years under Social Security in Illinois were frantic ones.

Some 15,000 persons applied for grants in the first month of the program, but only 22,000 were processed.

The state's bureaucracy was suddenly charged with spending suddenly more money on behalf of all the state's prisons, hospitals and charitable institutions combined, and it nearly collapsed.

Still, by 1939, 27 per cent of all Illinois' older than 65 were receiving Social Security (up to 90 per cent by 1970) with monthly payments of $16.50 ($17 in 1970).

Somewhat less effective federal initiative in housing followed during the same period.

More important, however, was health care provided by Title 18, 19 of the federal Social Security Act establishing the Medicare and Medicaid programs in 1965.

More recently, the federal government instituted Supplemental Security Income, to help those with an annual income to the aged who meet its prerequisites.

Under increasing political pressure, a Department of Aging, a cost-cutting position, was created by the state in November 1973.

In 1974, Illinois had at least 40 discrete programs treating its aged in diverse ways.

Historically, these developments are recognizable by the fact that in 1960, there were 137,717 of Illinois' 3,827,352 population, or 3.6 per cent of the population, older than 65. In 1970, that number was up to 1,400,000, and by 1980, the projected figure is 1,206,200 or nearly 11 per cent of the population.

It is also recognition that more and more families now have one or more elderly persons older than 65, children past retirement age as well, and grandchildren unable in many cases to support them all.

It is finally a recognition of sexism and its effect on the family, a response to the fact that women not only live longer, but that more are choosing to remain married and childless, have started playing the roles defined for them before Betty Friedan, Gloria Steinem and the Equal Rights Amendment.

Gerontology is a subject which promises to grow old with the state and its aging but active citizenry.

Schools

All schools, both public and parochial, will serve hot lunches on the first full day with the exception of St. Joseph School.

The Quad-City schools will also observe Labor Day on Monday, Sept. 6, when all pupils will be in school the day to return to regular classes on Tuesday, Sept. 7.

The starting and dismissal hours for both half-time days, and full-time sessions of all Quad-City Schools, are to be announced.

Drive. Resurfacing for that section also will be contracted.

Other proposed street improvements for which bids will be called this summer include:

Ward One—Installation of curbs and guttering on 13th Street from McCambridge Drive to Granite Avenue.

Ward Six—Installation of curbs and guttering on St. Clair Avenue from Jill to Willow, with 850 feet of resurfacing.

Ward Seven—Drainage improvements and grading of roadway shoulders on all streets between Ames and the Clarkston Drainage ditch.

Additional work in Ward Four will include an allotment of $10,000 for sidewalk construction, the location to be determined later.

All of this work will be financed with motor fuel tax funds with exception of sidewalk installation which will be paid out of general revenues sharing monies, city officials said.

Youth faces three charges

An 18-year-old youth of Pontoon Beach was charged at 4:14 p.m. Sunday with possession of cannabis, resisting a police officer and disorderly conduct.

Pontoon Beach police, while on patrol, saw the youth sitting in his car slumped over the wheel.

According to authorities, they asked him to get out of the car and when he did he began shouting, banging his head against the car and trying to strike the officers.

After being charged, he was released on notice to appear in court on Tuesday, Sept. 7.

As previously reported by the Register, the birthrate also reached its lowest point in history during 1975, reaching 14.7 births per 1,000 population.

The total fertility rate (the number of births per 1,000 women aged 15 to 44) in the last 15 years, at year of age, they experienced the birth rates occurring in that calendar year was estimated at 1,800 in 1975 compared with 2,480 in 1970 and 3,768 in 1957—the record high.

Birth and death statistics used in the report are from the National Center for Health Statistics of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Copies of the report, "Estimates of the Population of the United States and Components of Change, 1975 (with annual data from 1960)," Series No. 633, are available for $5.50 from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402, or from Commerce Department district offices.

Elledge

66 Mr. Elledge was a member of Granite City Elks Lodge 1063 since 1947.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. Robert (Maxine) Maddox of Granite City, Mrs. (Sister) Glenn (Joyce) Matson of Granite City; four brothers, Clarence and Albert of Lutesville, Mo., James Irvin Elledge of Edwardsville, and Sam of Festus, Mo.; six grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

In lieu of flowers, friends are asked to make donations to St. Peter's Evangelical United Church of Christ and Elks Lodge 1063.

Youth sought in assault

Authorities are seeking a young man about 16 years old, five feet seven inches tall, light brown and frizzled or curly hair, wearing a blue T-shirt, blue jeans, slim and weighing about 140 pounds in connection with an attempted assault on two girls, ages 14 and 15, at about 4:35 p.m. Saturday in an off-duty area of Granite Avenue and Nameoki Road.

It is believed the same man then exposed himself to a woman shopping for shoes, 3801 Nameoki Road, at about 5:10 p.m. Saturday.

The two girls said they were walking north in the area when they noticed a man getting out of a car. He then grabbed one of the girl's clothing, ripping them loose and knocking her to the ground. The other girl ran to a nearby home and called the police.

The man fled on foot down the alley toward Richmond Avenue when the girl being attacked screamed.

A short time later, a woman came running from the area, getting out of a car and a man standing near a magazine rack had exposed himself and then fled from the store.

11 arrested on Madison bridge

Acting on orders of Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk nine persons, all of St. Louis area, were arrested Sunday on the Chain of Rocks Bridge and charged with trespassing.

Police arrested two others later Sunday.

Madison Police were assisted by Sixth District St. Louis Police.

Complaints are being signed and summons will be sent to the individuals by the court.

Police who were not arrested were charged with desertion.

Glen and Jerry Stovall

alleged the two men

assaulted the men to halt before firing two shots, one striking each man.

Jerry Stovall suffered head and back injuries and was taken to the hospital here where he was admitted Sunday.

He was admitted to Belleville Memorial Hospital in serious condition and Dunn was pronounced dead at that hospital.

Glen Stovall was not seriously injured in the disturbance.

Fight ends in fatal shooting

Jerry Stovall, 28, St. Louis, was in stable condition during the weekend at St. Elizabeth Hospital after he was beaten during an incident at Stovall's residence in the Collinsville Wednesday evening.

Hank W. Dunn, 22, Fairview Heights, was shot, was shot to death at 10:30 p.m. Saturday. Stovall's brother, Glenn E. Stovall, 36, St. Louis, an off-duty St. Louis policeman who was visiting at the station.

The shooting occurred at Jerry's Sonic Station, 8407 Collinsville Road, near Collinsville, while Dunn and a companion, Anthony Schaepe, 28, Glenwood, were getting a car and a tire.

2 opening days at state fair

SPRINGFIELD — The 1976 Illinois State Fair will be so big it will take two days to open.

At least, that's the way the official schedule looks — the "Freedom Fair" opening day ceremony will be at 10 a.m. noon Thursday, Aug. 12, at the main gate, but the opening day parade will move out at 9:30 a.m. Friday, Aug. 13, through downtown Springfield.

Should that fail to be confusing enough, judging in the state fair's famous society horse show starts a full day earlier, Aug. 11. The society show, traditionally touted as the world's biggest society show, will be followed in the Coliseum for the last four days of the fair by the nation's largest western horse show.

As always there will be both old and new events vying for attention of fairgoers. Among the highlights are attractions which always draw crowds will be five days of harness racing (this year for more than $800,000 in purses), USAC-sanctioned auto races attracting top drivers in both "big cars" and stocks and dragsters, tractor pull competition, the Midway in Happy Hollow (Gooding's Million Dollar Midway with 35 rides and 15 shows), and the annual fair equipment show, livestock judging, a full day of veterans events, and a roster of top name entertainment before the grandstand night.

Next, Aug. 10, the Illinois Heritage Square, an 80,000-square-foot area across from the grandstand, where emphasis will be on ethnic foods, crafts, displays and performances; and a 65,000-square-foot exhibit along the east side of the grounds where approximately 30 noteworthy aircraft will be on display; Women's History, a tribute to contributions made by women to Illinois progress; an International visitors Days, Aug. 16, 17 and 18.

Also new in the lineup of fairground attractions will be an energy display featuring units from state and federal agencies and private industry.

Admission will be $1 for adults, 40 cents for children 12 and under, persons 60 years old and over, and disabled citizens. Parking on the grounds will cost $1.

Music will be everywhere on the grounds throughout the fair. Country and western music will dominate the music country beer garden on the west side of the grounds, while rock and roll will continue at Teen World, and the Folk Festival beer garden will feature folk music and dancing.

Nighttime entertainment, vaudeville acts and dancing will be offered at the "Top of the Fair" restaurant on the roof of the Illinois building, where basket lunches will be added to the menu this year.

Teen World will add a puppet and clown show, a children's theater and a petting zoo to its older attractions, which include a family restaurant, a food court, facilities to refrigerate and reheat baby food as well as apts., playpens and other child-care equipment. The Neary Teen World, in addition to commanding local music, will have a teen shopping area, crafts displays, talent contests, a penny arcade and motorcycle exhibits.

There will be daily parades through the fair grounds featuring the 40-horse hitch of Belgian draft horses, hitched four abreast and 10 deep. The matched sorrels with white faces and black manes, harnessed to the wagon, form a unit 138 feet long. The hitch also will appear before the grandstand during the evening shows, Aug. 12 to 16.

Veterans Day, when veterans and their families are admitted free, will be the first Sunday of the fair, Aug. 15. Events will get under way in front of the grandstand at 8 a.m. with drum and bugle bands, color guards, drill teams and specialty bands competing for $17,000 in premiums.

The sale of top livestock champions will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Agriculture Day, Aug. 17, in the Coliseum. On the last two days of the fair, mounted harness racing will replace the harness race card on the grandstand track, with dirt car practice set for 10 a.m. on Aug. 21, and race time set for 1:15 p.m. Sunday, Aug. 22, stock cars will warm up at 11 a.m., and race time will be 2:15 p.m. Purses include $22,500 for stock cars and $30,000 for dirt cars, plus cash prizes of $250 to any driver who breaks existing records, in either category, for the lap or the full 100-mile horse show.

Nightly grandstand shows begin at 8 p.m. Among the varied programs on tap are the Miss Illinois Pageant, King Jean Show and the Illinois Country Opry on Aug. 12; Seats and Crafts on Aug. 13; Tammy Wynette and the Settler Brothers, Aug. 14; Three Dog Night, Aug. 16; Outlaws and their Outlaw Waylon Jennings and the Taylors, Jessie Colter, Tompall and his Outlaw Band on Aug. 17; The Comedians in town at 9 p.m. on Aug. 18; Neil Sedaka and Bob Anthony on Aug. 19; Loretta Lynn and Conway Twitty on Aug. 20 and Blood, Sweat and Tears on Aug. 21.

Republican Day will be Aug. 18 and Governor's Day Aug. 19.

It appears to have, as the management likes to point out, something for everyone. Now if it just doesn't rain.

Radio series this week on fear of death

A fear of death doesn't seem to be about dying, but about the fear of nothingness and the loss of the control, according to Eric Cassell, M.D., and Cornell University health professor.

His comments will be a part of a special series on SWIE-FM beginning Friday, Aug. 12, and continuing through Friday, Aug. 19. SWIE-FM is a radio station owned and operated by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The series, "A Peaceful Death," will be broadcast on All Things Considered" daily from 10 a.m. to 11:30 p.m.

In recent years, death counseling and the rights of the dying have become controversial issues within the medical community. Cassell said that many terminally ill patients and their doctors have avoided bringing up the subject of death in what is referred to as "the conspiracy of silence."

But professors like Cassell are now supporting an openness between patients and doctors to create an equal share in both the healing and dying process.

In a segment on the effect of coming to terms with their families on the acceptance of death, listeners will hear a dialogue between a volunteer and housewife whose mother is dying.

Today, the program will include an interview with Cassell on new medical approaches involving care for dying patients. Tomorrow, Cassell will discuss the role played by relatives and friends in the dying process.

On Wednesday, clinical psychologist Charles Garfield will talk about the Shanti Project, a counseling hotline in the San Francisco Bay area for dying patients and their relatives. The next day, a counselor and housewife whose mother is dying of cancer will approach to death counseling. Cassell on Friday will discuss the use of life-sustaining machinery.

Linda Ronstadt, films, Jazz and three Symphony concerts on MRF agenda

Linda Ronstadt, two fine arts films, jazz and blues, and three concerts by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra highlight upcoming activities beginning this evening at the Mississippi River Festival at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Linda Ronstadt, originally scheduled for Sunday, has been moved to tonight.

Miss Ronstadt, who began her career in the mid-60's, has since moved out on her own with such major hits as "Heat Wave," "You're No Good," "When Will I Be Loved," and "Prisoner In Disguise." Her solo work began when she left the group in 1969.

With three gold albums, a number of single hits and successful performances around the country, she has since become a leading female figure in country-rock music. The concert begins at 8:30 p.m.

Also tonight, two swashbucklers will be shown in the University Center's Meridian Hall on the SIU campus as part of the festival's "Silent Series." "Robinson Crusoe" and "The Thief of Baghdad" are two of the outstanding examples of the swashbuckler movie.

"The Thief of Baghdad" is the original silent version, starring and produced by Douglas Fairbanks.

"Robinson Crusoe" is a 1952 version directed by Luis Bunuel which explores the classic tale of a man alone on a desert island.

The films will begin at 7:30 p.m. with admission by donation.

Tuesday Esther Phillips and Bobby "Blue" Bland will bring a night of jazz and blues to the festival site.

Esther Phillips, as one critic put it, is "a vibrant, straightforward, strong personality who exhibits a very personal, pleasing glow when communicating with an audience."

Bobby Bland is the performer of such hits as "I Stand Alone," "Two Steps From the Blues," and "Poverty." He has been recording since 1955, when his first solo effort, "Loving Blues," started a career that has established him as one of the top blues artists in the business.

The festival site will be vacant Wednesday night as attention turns toward Kiel Auditorium, St. Louis, for a concert by the St. Louis Symphony which was scheduled for the MRF, but complex technical lighting demands made the switch necessary.

MRF tickets to the Yes concert will be redeemed at the festival box offices or will be exchanged at Kiel for Yes tickets.

On Thursday, the St. Louis Symphony will perform at the festival site. The Symphony, conducted by Leonard Slatkin, will have Abbey Simon as pianist in a program that includes the Ravel's "Caprice Bohéme," Opus 12; "Rhapsody on a Theme of Paganini" and others.

Simon is one of the select few musicians who have successfully made the transition from child prodigy to mature artist. He has toured extensively around the world, following his original success as a child of 8 as a student at the Juilliard Institute of Music on a scholarship in both composition and piano.

As a special addition, the Alton High School Marching 100 Band will play before the Yes concert.

The Alton band recently participated in the Bicentennial Parade in Philadelphia.

Friday, Aug. 13, is an open day at the festival. A special family concert was to be arranged for that day, but plans were unable to be completed, a MRF spokesman said.

The St. Louis Symphony will again perform on Saturday, Aug. 14, in conjunction with Ruth Sclyncarska. The evening's performance will feature works by Memm, Saint-Saens, and Stravinsky. Ruth Sclyncarska, an internationally-recognized pianist, is artist-in-residence at SIU.

She gave her first recital at age 3, made her Berlin debut at 5, her Paris debut at 7, and gave a U.S. concert at 8. She has been featured in numerous magazines and books, and has many recordings to her credit, including a recent "Chopin Etudes, Opus 10."

Prior to the Symphony performance, the Scott Air Force Base Band will perform at the festival site, starting at 7:30 p.m.

On Sunday, Aug. 15, the Symphony will conclude its weekend of activities at the festival with a special performance of the concert version of Porgy and Bess.

Leonard Van Camp will direct the Festival Chorus and Franz Allers will conduct the orchestra. Betty Jones will be the soprano for the performance, and Robert Moseley will be the baritone.

Betty Jones, who has appeared at most of the world's major halls, has performed over 200 dramatic roles and many major oratorio works. Moseley, another well-known vocalist, began with the San Francisco Opera and since has appeared worldwide.

Festival Director Lyle Ward

LINDA RONSTADT, popular singer of "Heat Wave," "You're No Good," "When Will I Be Loved," "Prisoner in Disguise" and other country-rock hits, will appear at 8:30 this evening at the Mississippi River Festival.

Satellite relays long-distance phone calls; tracking station in Illinois

If you make a long-distance call within this country, it may be going via a satellite more than 22,000 miles above the earth. And if that call comes from the Midwest, it will be handled through a satellite tracking station located in Hanover, Ill., 150 miles north of Chicago.

It's all part of a new domestic satellite system, jointly operated by AT&T (American Telephone and Telegraph) and GTE Satellite Corporation (a subsidiary of General Telephone and Electronics Corp.) which has just gone into service.

It represents the first communications satellite system that customers can use for regular long-distance telephone calls within the 48 continental states.

The basic system adds a new dimension, as well as increased capacity, to the nationwide telecommunications network. R. Douglas Watson, vice president and general manager of the AT&T Long Lines Central Area, has told the Press-Record.

"Equally important," he added, "we expect this system to lead to further communications developments that will improve service and help hold down the cost of interstate rates."

The Hanover station is part of a system with an ultimate capacity to handle 28,000 simultaneous telephone conversations.

It has gone into full service July 26 and is providing transmission facilities for telephone traffic within the contiguous 48 states and Hawaii. It also is capable of serving Alaska and Puerto Rico through earth stations operated by other carriers.

Also, both AT&T and GTE engineers plan to conduct experiments with the system to gain additional knowledge about satellite transmissions for use in future systems.

Operation of the system comes almost exactly 100 years after Alexander Graham Bell exhibited his telephone system on June 28, 1876, at the Philadelphia Centennial Exposition.

The first of the high-capacity, Comstar communications satellites, manufactured by Hughes Aircraft Co., was launched by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration from Cape Canaveral, Fla., on May 13.

The second satellite will serve as a backup satellite, was launched July 22, with the third set of orbit in 1978.

Initially, the system is being used for message telecommunication and for government communications.

While the system is capable of providing other communications services, the Federal Communications Commission has prohibited both AT&T and GTE from providing private line services — except for the federal government — in the 48 contiguous states and Hawaii for three years from the date the system became operational.

The station, located on a 180-acre tract about eight miles southeast of Galena, is one of four earth stations owned by AT&T and three by GTE.

It consists of a single-story, 8,000-square-foot building and two 96-foot diameter antenna.

Construction of the facility began in June 1974. Total cost of the project, including land, buildings and improvements, antennas, transmitting and receiving equipment, construction stations and facilities and development engineering, is $9.1 million.

The station, which will be staffed by four AT&T Long Lines employees, is connected to the national telecommunications network by a system of buried cable and microwave radio relay.

The three satellites, each weighing 1,833 pounds (in orbit) and 20 feet high, are owned and operated by Comstar General, a subsidiary of the Communications Satellite Corp.

AT&T is leasing the satellites for seven years at $1.3 million a month.

The backup satellite, in addition to serving as a spare, will also be used to avoid outages when powerful radio signals from the sun temporarily interfere with signals from a satellite when it comes in front of the sun. Such outages, however, only occur a few minutes each year.

Comstar General also will manage the fourth satellite on the ground to be launched in case any of the satellites fail to perform satisfactorily.

The three satellites will orbit

22,300 miles over the equator in "geostationary" positions — that is, they will maintain the same rotational speed as the earth and therefore stay fixed over one geographic area.

Each satellite has 24 transponders, devices which receive signals from the earth stations, change their frequency, amplify them and send them back to earth.

Each transponder provides

1,200 one-way voice circuits.

AT&T's three other earth stations are located at: Three Peaks, Calif., (north of San Francisco); Woodbury, Ga., (near Atlanta) and Hawley, Pa., (near Scranton).

GTE's three earth stations are in: Homosassa, Fla. (north of Tampa); Triunfo Pass, Calif. (near Los Angeles) and Sunset, Hawaii (north of Honolulu). The Triunfo Pass and Homosassa stations are not scheduled to go into service until early 1977.

Five of the earth stations have the use of two antennas

— one to serve as a backup

— while the other, Hawley and Triunfo Pass each have three.

Station sites were picked to serve widely-separated geographic areas with large telephone traffic volumes that are expected to continue to grow.

The stations were then built near those population centers, but in rural areas, natural drainage areas, free of interference from microwave radio and other signals.

Environmental considerations

also played a part in site selection and during construction.

Total cost of all seven earth stations — including their terrestrial connections, was $77 million.

What using satellites for domestic communications is in its infancy, such communications techniques are not new to either the Bell System or

GTE.

Just as it pioneered in submarine and long-haul radio systems development, the Bell System also took the lead in satellite systems.

In 1954 — three years before the Soviet Union successfully orbited Sputnik — Dr. John R.

Pierce of Bell Laboratories made the first detailed proposal for a satellite system to be used for overseas communications. And a number of Bell Laboratories' contributions have made satellite communications a reality. Including the transponder, the solar cell and the traveling wave tube, which is the transmitting power source for all existing communications satellites.

The Bell Systems' two Telstar satellites were orbited in July 1962 and May 1963.

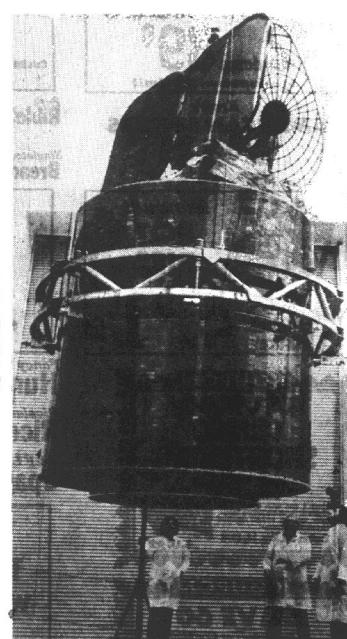

The Telstar experiments provided additional knowledge on space and expedited the subsequent development of commercial satellite communications.

THREE COMSTAR SATELLITES and seven earth stations in the new joint AT&T-GTE domestic communications satellite system are shown in this artist's sketch.

GTE, which has taken an active part in the development and implementation of communications satellite technology since the late 1950s, constructed 10 earth stations for Comsat within the U.S. and other countries that are used for global satellite communications by the International Telecommunications Satellite Consortium.

Installed in this fall are stations in Nigeria, Thailand and Venezuela. In addition, GTE has constructed earth stations for domestic communications in Algeria and house east of Route 303 on the north side of Carolyn Drive. It is to be used as an advertising or outdoor storage of equipment or fencing, according to the recommendation.

A request by the zoning board for permission to erect a pole and keep two additional horses on his property at 832a Thorntree Drive, Mitchell, also is recommended by the zoning board. The property is in an R-3 single-family residential district of Nameoki Township.

The zoning board also is recommending the issuing of special use permits for two mobile homes, one at 2656 North St. for Orval C. Femmer, representing Sharon L. Wells, in R-3 residential of Nameoki Township, and the other for Stanley "Mark" Lucas Jr. and Stanley "Mark" Lucas II on Barkley Avenue near Tennessee Avenue in Mitchell, an R-3 district of Nameoki Township.

Carl Maylin Price, Dated DR announced Friday that four area colleges have been awarded a total of $30,107 to help provide loans and scholarships for nursing students.

Bellville Area College has been awarded $3,352; Lewis and Clark Community College of Godfrey, $7,411; State Community College of East St. Louis, $3,706; Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, $1,498.

The federal funds were awarded by the Bureau of Health Manpower of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The money will be allocated by the individual educational institutions through their financial aid offices.

School grants

Rep. Melvin Price (Dem., 23rd) announced that Madison and St. Clair Counties have been granted more than $5 million through Title I of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act of 1965.

The funds will provide educational services during the 1976-77 fiscal year for children living in low-income areas and in state-operated or supported institutions, neglected and delinquent children.

St. Clair County has been awarded $4,132,296 and Madison County will receive $1,468,710.

The awards are based on the number of low-income, neglected and delinquent children living in each county.

The sample is now being taken by the board subject to review by the Cook County Circuit Court, which has limited the cost of the survey to $25,000 at this time.

A "Expres" lawsuit, Gertz v. The State Board of Elections, filed by former constitutional convention delegates, challenged the validity of the proposed constitutional amendment.

The suit, in the Gertz matter is expected this week.

Board defends validity survey on petitions

The State Board of Elections is conducting a random survey to certify the validity and sufficiency of petitions and with the board seeking to include constitutional initiatives on the November ballot.

State Board of Elections Chairman Dennis J. Landis Jr., said Friday the survey is being conducted in accordance with requirements of the Illinois Constitution.

"We are clearly ordered under the Constitution and by the statutes of Illinois to undertake this project," he said. "We must have the survey in order to determine whether the petition is valid. Without the survey," he added, "we would have no basis for any decision."

"Under the Constitution," Landis added, "certification surveys are being conducted by the board in manner."

He explained that prior to adoption of the 1970 Illinois Constitution, election authorities were not required to verify petitions.

"Under law, ordered to determine if a petition involving constitutional amendments was, in fact, circulated properly and was executed by a sufficient number of voters," he declared.

"To that end, 20 carefully selected and trained staff members are being used to conduct the survey," he said. "The survey sample includes individuals who have appeared to have gathered excess of 22,000 signatures by them selves."

The sample is now being taken by the board subject to review by the Cook County Circuit Court, which has limited the cost of the survey to $25,000 at this time.

Unjustified waterway user tax beaten; idea to be revived

The U. S. Senate appropriately voted 77-17 on Aug. 3 against Sen. James Buckley's plan to tax users of inland waterways.

A four-cents-a-gallon tax on fuel used by commercial vessels would have been detrimental to Mississippi River shipping and to the Tri-City Regional Port and would have worsened the nation's economic growth, employment and inflation problems, quickly increasing prices paid by consumers.

The vote was on a 1976 Tax Reform Act amendment that was nearly identical to the New York senator's separate bill introduced in March. He commented that the tax would "restore equity to the nation's transportation system" and predicted that without a user tax "we will not be authorizing huge expenditures for the waterways."

Sen. James Allen of Alabama said in debate that such a tax would "feed the fires of inflation" by driving up costs to farmers who ship their grain on barges as well as the costs to persons and firms shipping other goods. He called the proposal an abrupt departure in federal policy.

The American Waterways Operators said the issue is too important to be considered without public hearings. They opposed floor action on the topic prior to examination of the content of the tax bill, and called for a review of the nation's total transportation system by the newly-created National Transportation Policy Study Commission authorized by Public Law 94-280.

The review means that the issue is not dead, and this was underscored by discussions expected to lead to introduction this fall of another form of usage fee specifically tied to the proposed replacement of Locks and Dam 26 south of Alton.

Helpful legislative activity negative as well as positive

A legislator is most often noted for his positive actions, but negative activity also can be helpful when lame-brained proposals arise. An example is the role by State Senator Sam Vadalabene of this district is suppressing during the June and July General Assembly deliberations a bill that slipped out of the Senate through the Illinois House without a dissenting vote.

The legislation would have banned construction in supposed "100-year flood" areas. Despite the local levees, it would have become awkward or impossible to even add on a roof here had not the bill been killed, legal authorities say.

On the affirmative side, Sen. Vadalabene continued his effective legislative role on a number of bills, including the Madison County cultural and performing arts center, educational television and university, arts and conservation funding.

Cooperation aiding orderly growth in State Capitol area

Press-Record Springfield Bureau — Prospects for the much-needed orderly development of the State Capitol area are the best they have ever been in the wake of the recent General Assembly session.

This is the result of a new legislative cooperation generated by the State Capitol Development Board, the agencies directly responsible for recommending and accomplishing land acquisition and construction of state facilities in the area.

To succeed, these agencies needed also the support and cooperation of Gov. Daniel Walker, the General Assembly and the Springfield City Council. They received it from all.

The fruit of their efforts is that:

—Appropriations have been made to enable the Space Needs Commission to purchase land for use in areas bounded by Cook, Paoli, Washington and 3rd Streets as that property becomes available. Such a practice will save money for the state and avoid confusion.

—Construction is under way on an underground parking facility south of the State Office Building to house over 700 cars.

—Funds have been appropriated to design a new state office building to be constructed in the two-block area north of the Capitol and to construct a centralized computer facility for the Department of Finance in the 200 block of West Adams Street.

—Spring and 1st Streets have been closed in the area to facilitate the construction.

Not a part of the Capitol complex but located nearby is the courts complex project, planned for the block immediately north of the Executive Mansion.

The Space Needs Commission is responsible for the appropriations and planning for this site. It is to include facilities for Appellate and Circuit Courts and legal and paralegal education facilities.

Time after time in the last half century, recommendations have been made for orderly and systematic growth of the Capitol area to meet the expanding needs of state government for office facilities.

Few of those recommendations were translated into construction, and the state government gradually spread out to occupy scores of buildings in various parts of the city.

Now, the governor and the legislators are finally providing the leadership to act positively on planners' recommendations and expand the Capitol complex so that many state operations can be drawn together in the area, and at the same time the severe parking problems in the area can be solved.

We commend all those involved in this effort and we look forward to progressive growth in the Capitol area to serve the best interests of state government and make the area something in which all of Illinois can be solved.

Let us take the boozie out of our Congress and Senate and see that our representatives are in order when they are selected to be when there is something to be voted on, and off somewhere getting all boozed up to where they don't care about what is going on.

Let us put the Bible back in our schools so that our children something besides sex, booze and dope. If we do this we can have a civilized country again — where we can get out and go and be safe.

Let us not be afraid to be honest with our neighbors, and how were they stopped? And who stopped them? Was it President Nixon? He got hooked in with a bunch of zealous guys who wanted to see the Nixon's reelected another four years and get things straightened out.

A bunch of Washington politicians were trying to steal the election from Nixon. We all know Nixon became the most powerful President who was ever in the White House. He did make a mistake, but what did he do that any other man would do? He got hooked in with his place in his pocket.

Now, may everyone hear me and listen and get out on election day and vote for the man who will not be afraid to say "no" for what he thinks is right and best for the U.S.A., not for his own pocket.

I believe in a two-party system. We would be in bad trouble if we were not so. May God bless all of us — and help us do what is right and condemn what is wrong.

Search continues for men who stabbed SIUE security guard

A $200 reward is being offered for information leading to the capture of a man who beat and stabbed a police officer from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Wednesday night.

James H. Hasse, 29, Fairview Heights, is recuperating in St. Elizabeth Hospital from life wounds to his stomach, his left forearm and his left shoulder. His forearm was cut "to the bone" when he raised his arm to stop a knife from being slashed, he reported. Two assailants were involved and both fled into the woods.

Hasse's service revolver was taken from him and only the magazine containing 12 rounds of ammunition kept him from being fired into his temple at point-blank range, he added. By the time his assailant released the safety, Hasse was able to move and the bullet struck the pavement, just missing his head.

SIUE officers believe the assault was intentional and may have been in retaliation for recent drug arrests by Hasse and fellow officers.

One officer said a young man, believed to have been one of the two assailants, came up to Hasse about 90 minutes before he was assaulted, tapped him on the shoulder and said to a companion, "This is Hasse Kill him."

Hasse was assaulted by two men as he returned to his patrol car, parked in a parking lot about one-fourth mile south of the Mississippi River Festival grounds during a concert. The assault, in not believed to be random, occurred at approximately six feet tall, weighing 170 to 180 pounds and 25 to 30 years of age. Any information may be forwarded to Detective Louis Zeroff at the SIUE Security Office, 618-692-3324. The SIUE Police Benevolent Association has donated $200 to establish a reward fund for the arrest and prosecution of the assailants. A spokesman for the association said other donations to the fund are anticipated.

SIUE and Edwardsville police and Madison County Sheriff's Department, a St. Louis County K-9 unit and the St. Louis County Police helicopter aided in the search for the two, but were unsuccessful.

One assailant, who was called Joe, was about 6 feet, tall, weighed about 120 pounds, was 25 to 30 years of age, had dark or black hair and back to a ponytail. He had "Afro" hair and may have had a mustache.

Hasse was in plainclothes, working an auto burglary and narcotics detail when assaulted.

After stabbing the policeman several times, the two assailants fled into the woods. They attempted to take Hasse's revolver, but he resisted, holding the single and fired at least three shots at the men as they fled. It is not known if either was struck.

One assailant, who was called Joe, was about 6 feet, tall, weighed about 120 pounds, was 25 to 30 years of age, had dark or black hair and back to a ponytail.

Hasse was in plainclothes, working an auto burglary and narcotics detail when assaulted.

After stabbing the policeman several times, the two assailants fled into the woods. They attempted to take Hasse's revolver, but he resisted, holding the single and fired at least three shots at the men as they fled. It is not known if either was struck.

SIUE and Edwardsville police and Madison County Sheriff's Department, a St. Louis County K-9 unit and the St. Louis County Police helicopter aided in the search for the two, but were unsuccessful.

One assailant, who was called Joe, was about 6 feet, tall, weighed about 120 pounds, was 25 to 30 years of age, had dark or black hair and back to a ponytail.

He was a past noble grand of the Venice Odd Fellows Lodge 719.

Survivors include his wife,

Services in Tamms for Mrs. McNelly

Funeral services were held Aug. 3 for Mrs. C. B. (Georgia Jackson) McNelly of Tamms, Ill., who died there Aug. 1.

Mrs. McNelly had been a frequent visitor here at the home of David and Mrs. Helen Klein.

Mrs. Klein attended the funeral accompanied by two grandsons, John Marshall and Donald Davis of New Orleans, La.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Praises community for its backing

from the "big band sound" of the '30s and '40s to the contemporary '70s music. Top quality in musicianship, appearance and personalities was a must.

The band officially started in June 1978. We are now booking into 1979 and have been playing around the area, mostly in small communities, from the Missouri Athletic Club west to the hotels, ballrooms and country clubs in between for public and private affairs.
